James P. Harbeson, Democratic co Judicial District, is somewhat of a "cor-poration lawyer" himself, for he was at-torney for the railroad which runs from Johnson Junction to Hillsboro, passing through Flemingsburg.

The only reason that he isn't more of a "corporation lawyer" is that there are no other corporations in his neighbor hood to employ him.

But he is something more than a corporation lawyer."

He is a "salary grabber!"
When he was elected Judge of the Fleming County Court the salary of the office was $500 a year.

Mr. Harbeson made the race with a full knowledge of that fact. He entered into a contract with the people of his county that he would serve as Judge for $500 a year. And yet, after he was secure in his

A salary grabber;

An autocrat.

Do the taxpayers of the District think their interests will be subserved by placing the judicial machinery in his hands?

We have always considered the office of Circuit Judge of sufficient importance to inspire all fair-minded and order loving men with a desire to hold the place, and, as far as is consistent, the ant also, above even the suspicion that political influences could pollute that ermine which should everywhere be regarded as the palladium of justice be een man and man. With this view we have even refrained in the contest now before us from com menting upon the official acts of Judge James P. Harbeson, although it is uni-versally conceded that such acts, for manifest reasons of public policy, are at all times open to fair criticism and publie consideration.

nce thus far we have not said on Presiding Judge of the Fleming County Court of Claims, at a session held since Court of Claims, at a session held since the adoption of the new Constitution for this state,—which expressly prohibits the leaying of a politar exceeding $1.50 to the individual,—not only favored a levy of $3, but persistently refused to recon-vene the Magistrates to annul the Ille-gal assessment until after he had gone to Frankfort to consult the Governor and Attorney fleares! and Attorney General.

Nevertheless some of his adherents in this race point to him as a profound exponent of the law and a friend of the

As properly and significantly reflect-ing upon his judicial equipoise and peculiar fitness for such an exalted trust, we have not recalled to the many friends and acquaintances of the la-mented Judge Andrews that Judge Harbeson, while clothed with temporary authority as Special Judge of the Fleming Circuit Court, saw proper to inflict upon that venerable gentleman a fine for a supposed contempt of court, which act of authority was carried unforgiven to the grave by the one who sustained it and always claimed it to have been uncalled for and unjust These things are plain, unvarnished truths that address themselves in unmistakable terms to the sober contemplation of every thoughtful citizen of this Judicial District.

The one fact is apparent, no epidemic of diphtheris has ever visited our city. The reports gone out are unwarranted when compared with the facts and evidence obtained above. It was an unfortunate coincidence that is almost half of the fatal cases the deaths occurred within a few hours of each other.

However appalling that one day may appear, the mortality, so far as diphtheria is concerned, is no greater for 1892 than it was for 1891.

In the published report of the deaths occurring in the city of Cincinnati or of Louisville scarcely a day goes by but that diphtheria is named on the list of casualties. It is read with composure and with no great alarm.

The city of Maywille is in a good sanitary condition. Every physician knows his duty in the premises and the public can rest assured that an epidemic of diphtheria will not occur.

The City Board with the County Board of Health investigated the subject and find no reason for closing schools, interrupting any daily business or pursuit in the city of Maywille.

THE Democratic campaign has dwindled down to a long, plaintive, contemptible whine against the Republican managers. From every section of the country the Democracy is heard shrisking: "The wicked Republicans are using money to buy votes! They are corrupting us!" It is a whine—an long, petty, babyish whine, from a party which, foreseeing its inevitable defeat at the polls, is getting ready with its excuses and explanations.

CANDIDATE CLEVELAND really doesn't see how the Republicans can carry the election unless they buy it—but let him wait until next Tuesday and then will see. At present the idea of people voting against a man so great and good as himself is really quite too absurd for his serious consideration.

THE spectacle of rich men contributing to the Republican campaign fund is shocking and highly reprehensible in the eyes of modest and virtuous millionaries like WILLIAM C. MITTAGE and CALVIN S. BRICE. These greate men are making a tremendous effort to terform politics, and can prove it by the stubs in their check books.

THE Democratic press of the country has been vociferously howling for everal weeks about the enormity of the several weeks about the enormity of the Republican campaign fund, and now it has just leaked out that the size of Democratic found with which to purchase votes is $1,000,000, $400,000 of which will be used in the Empire State. But this amount will not carry the state for CLEYELAND, as $1,500,000 failed to do so in 1888.

In 1888.

ACCORDING to the strange logic of of the "startling" discovere of The Bulletin, the lawyer whose duty and professional engagements call him to the defense of an individual charged with larceny thereby participates in the theft and himself becomes a thief; or if, perchance, he accept employment from the unfortunate creature who stands indicted for murder, be by so doing impuses his hands in human blood. And as to civil affairs the insimution is directly made that if the lawyer engages in the line of his profession to prosecute claims or defend the rights of corporations before the courts his undertaking carries with it his conscience and his soul, for time and for eternity, by ever after pandering to the interest of the employer beyond the scope of employment and after the engagement has ended. Such may be the standard of professional men and professional integrity, viewed from The Bulletin standpoint, but there is not a man, woman or child in this Judicial District who can rity, viewed from The Bulletin stand-point, but there is not a man, woman or child in this Judicial District who can be forced to suspect that A. Hon. Matt O'Doherty has reterned to Louisville after a tour through the state and has been interviewed by The Louisville Commercial. He said:

"In returning from Virginia I stopped at Ashland, Ky., which is in the District in which Judge Holt is a candidate for re-election as Judge of the, Court of Appeals on the Republican ticket. He is certain to be elected. He will poll the unanimous Republican vote and will get one-half or the Democratic vote. His career on the bench, combined with his career on the bench candidate for the Circuit Judgeship, is also a sure winner. He is equally popular with Democrats and Republicans. The same can be said of young Mr. Byron, who is running for Commonwealth's Attorney. The Congressional candidate, Mr. McCartney, has made a splendid canvass, and I consider his election were varioushle, athough his election were varioushle athough his election were various and the consider his election were elected and the consider his election were elected. made a splendid carvas, and I consider his election very probable, although his District has been heretofore largely Democratic.
